You may omit minor traffic violations for which you paid a fine of $50 or less. Omission of information may be considered cause for disqualification from the employment pre-screening process or result in termination of employment.

FOR POSITIONS, OTHER THAN THOSE IDENTIFIED ABOVE:

- The criminal history of an applicant will only be considered after the final interview which is conducted in person or an offer of employment has been made, whichever occurs first.
- City of Caliente may, before selecting an applicant as a finalist or extending a conditional offer, notify the applicant of any provisions of law that disqualify a person with a particular criminal history from employment in a particular position.
- A record of conviction will not necessarily bar the applicant from employment. Factors to be considered when looking at records of criminal history include:
  - Length of time passed since the offense;
  - Age of applicant at the time of the offense;
  - Severity and nature of the offense;
  - Relationship of the offense to the position applying for; and
  - Evidence of rehabilitation of the applicant.
- The following will not be considered:
  - o Arrests which did not result in a conviction;
  - o Record of convictions that were dismissed, expunged, or sealed; and
  - Infractions or misdemeanors for which a sentence of imprisonment in a county jail was not imposed.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Provide information regarding all paid employment (include military employment if duties/assignments relate to the job you are applying for). Volunteer work which may be related to the position for which you are applying should also be provided. Describe your most recent position first; then list other positions in order held. Use a separate block for each position, even if with the same employer. Use additional sheets if necessary. Do NOT use references such as "See Résumé" in place of completing this section.
